

09 Project Feedback

At the end of your internship you should meet with your supervisor at work to discuss your project. This discussion should reflect achieved vs. desired outcomes of your project. Get feedback on your strengths and weaknesses. If you were not able to achieve the desired outcomes discuss the barriers, which kept you from succeeding. Document your discussion below.